Prime Minister Announces Statement Will be Made at First Opportunity British Labor Minister Bevin Expresses Belief Nazi Leader Flew to Scotland With Full Knowledge of Fuehrer

NT BIG SCALE DRIVE COMING IN NEAR EAST

By the Associated Press
British Labor Minister Ernest Bevin today said that he believed Deputy Fuehrer Rudolf Hess had fled to Scotland with the full knowledge of Adolf Hitler, but that he doubted Hess came "out of sympathy for the British people."

In the first outspoken official statement on the bizarre episode, Bevin said that he believed Hess is a murderer.

You can understand my feeling when I tell you he was the man who collected an index card on every trade union leader in Britain and the social Democrats, and when the time came, they were sent either to concentration camps or murdered."

Prime Minister Winston Churchill today said that he would repeat the first opportunity on the incident "guided in the selection of that opportunity by the public interest."

Asked if there were any truth in a German radio suggestion that Hitler is ready to make a separate peace with Germany, Churchill replied:

"Whatever delusions may exist, it is not among them."

Bevin's statement on the Hess incident came as a series of developments indicated that Hitler is starting a big-scale campaign in the Middle East. These included:

1. British headquarters at Cairo d German warplanes had landed at flying fields in the oil kingdom of Iraq.

2. The German radio said the British had ordered all British women and children withdrawn from Palestine.

3. German Ambassador Franz Papen returned to Istanbul "friendly greetings" from the Turkish president Ismet Inönü. If he did not fight, Turkey would be an easy route for sweep of Hitler's Balkan armies toward the Suez Canal.

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told parliament that "such authorities were allowing German planes to land in French-occupied Syria en route to Iraq."

He said that the French government "must escape responsibility for its situation."

"Their action under German orders in permitting these flights is clear: breach of the armistice rules," Eden said.

In Berlin, Nazi sources said Hitler was not expected to make a speech for the time being on the Hess episode.

Authoritative quarters in London spiced the riddle by declining to confirm unofficial but censored reports that the Nazi deputy Fuehrer, in defiance of Adolf Hitler's orders, fled to Britain as a self-constituted "apostle of peace."

President Recovers From Upset Stomach

Washington, May 15.—(P)—President Roosevelt was described as in excellent physical condition today and for the first time since he became ill from an upset stomach more than a week ago. A social engagement was on his schedule—a luncheon for the Argentine foreign minister.

Enrique Ruiz-Guinazu, the minister, and Secretary Hull had an appointment with the chief executive in his study preceding the luncheon.

The president was still remaining in the White House proper and his only other engagement was with Gerard Swope, former head of the General Electric Company.

INTENSIVE HUNT UNDER WAY FOR BAND OF ROBBERS

Peace Officers of Northern Pennsylvania, Southern New York and FBI Agents Join in Systematic Search for Eldred Gunmen

LOOT TAKEN $5,311.70

Smethport, May 15.—(P)—Peace officers of northern Pennsylvania and southern New York and FBI agents joined today in a systematic hunt for five young gunmen who yesterday robbed the First National Bank of Eldred of $5,311.70 in cash.

Sheriff George D. Calhoun, County Detective Murrel E. Dickinson, and District Attorney Claude W. Shattuck of McKean county and State Motor Police Sergeant John Mullane led the search.

More than a score of state policemen were rushed into the district from adjoining areas and officials said at least two men from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had arrived.

The hunt centered in an area about Millport, between Shinglehouse and Coudersport in Potter county, some 20 miles east of Eldred. Late yesterday and last night, witnesses said they had seen an automobile with five passengers, resembling that of the robbers, pass through Millport about an hour after the holdup.

E. E. Drake, of Smethport, president of the bank, disclosed the bandits took $5,311.70, all but about $150 in silver coins being taken from one cash till. He said he did not believe there were any bills larger than $20 in the loot.

Drake was in the directors' room of the bank with Cashier G. I. Siglund at the time the robbers appeared, an hour after the doors were opened.

"I thought it was a joke and I asked the young man who came in with a gun, 'You're joking, aren't you?'" said Drake.

He said hesitatingly, "No, I don't think so," then looked out into the bank and said, "We mean it. We're after money. You sit still. It was all over in five minutes."

Postponement of Test on Convoy Issue Clears the Way for Senate Passage, Probably Before Nightfall, of Administration Legislation Authorizing Acquisition of Idle Foreign Vessels in American Ports

THREAT OF LENGTHY DEBATE ELIMINATED

Washington, May 15.—(P)—Senator Tobey (R-N.H.) said today that a "tremendous and increasing volume" of letters to the White House was acting as "a definite check to the president" against any move to order use of the navy to convoy war shipments to belligerents.

In a formal statement announcing he intended to delay offering an anti-convoy resolution in the senate, Tobey predicted that by the time President Roosevelt makes a scheduled speech May 27 sentiment against convoys will have "reached a peak of overwhelming opposition."

Postponement of a test on the convoy issue cleared the way today for Senate passage of the administration bill authorizing acquisition of idle foreign ships in American ports.

The threat of lengthy debate was lifted when Senator Tobey decided not to seek an anti-convoy provision in the pending legislation, but to wait until the whole convoy question could be raised separately.

Both the supporters and the opponents of the ship acquisition measure thereupon agreed that it probably would receive senate approval by nightfall and returned to the house for action on minor amendments. The house passed the bill by a two-to-one vote last week.

With the convoy rider eliminated from consideration, the only important amendment to be voted on was the proposal of Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and Clark (D-Mo.) to prohibit the transfer of any requisitioned belligerent ship to another belligerent.

Senator Barkley (D-Ky.), the majority leader, predicted the defeat of this amendment, which would prevent the United States from turning over to Britain any of the 30 Axis vessels now in the coast guard's protective custody.

Senator Tobey reluctantly decided to refrain from offering his anti-convoy rider to the ship bill after two meetings yesterday with (Turn to Page Fifteen)

SUPPLY VESSEL IN NAZI CONVOY CLAIMED SUNK

London, May 15.—(P)—Attacking an escorted German convoy off the Netherlands coast in broad daylight, a British torpedo-carrying plane sank a supply vessel and slipped away unscathed, the Air Ministry reported today.

The Air Ministry news service said the ship, a 5,000-tonner, was one of a convoy of seven vessels which opened fire on the plane when it moved within range.

The pilot released the torpedo and the navigator hurried to the observation cabin "to see a large column of smoke rising through the mist where a 5,000-ton ship had been," the service said.

Bad flying weather gave Britain a respite from German bombing raids last night. The Royal Air Force likewise stayed home.

For the first time in six weeks the Air Ministry issued a "there is nothing to report" communique.

Meanwhile, officials permitted reports to be published that Lam-beth Palace, St. James's Palace, the Queen's Hall, St. Clement Danes church, the Old Bailey and the Salvation Army headquarters were among historic landmarks damaged in recent raids on London.

The church of St. Clement Danes, designed by Sir Christopher Wren and built in 1681 in the middle of the Strand, was gutted.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER MAY BE PITTSFIELD MAN

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of John Morgoch, 30, missing since November 20, was believed solved this morning with the discovery of a body floating in the Allegheny River, near the dredging operations of the General Concrete Products Corp.

The body was found by workmen who were dredging and was evidently dislodged from the river bed by the operations.

Morgoch, who resided on the Youngville-Pittsfield road, was last seen in this city on the above date, when he alighted from a car operated by Carl Solberg, a neighbor.

Solberg stated at that time that Morgoch had asked him for a ride to Warren and that he had last seen him at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Liberty street.

GERMANY SENDS IRAQ ASSISTANCE

By the Associated Press
London, May 15.—(P)—Germany has moved into Iraq by way of French-mandated Syria, using Syrian airfields for Luftwaffe stopovers, the British government announced today.

At the same time a prospect of the French mandate's involvement in the struggle over Iraq was cited in a declaration by Foreign Secretary Eden that "full authority" had been given to British forces to attack German planes in Syria.

Eden charged that the transit of German planes via Syria was a "clear breach" of the armistice agreement between Germany and France after that British ally was knocked out of the European war last June.

Philadelphia's Most Disastrous Fire in Decade Destroys Block - Square Port Richmond Lumber Yard, Half Dozen Neighboring Homes and Eats its Way Into the Newly - Rehabilitated Cramps Docks Before Controlled

HUNDRED HOUSES IN AREA ARE EVACUATED

Philadelphia, May 15.—(P)—Philadelphia's most disastrous fire in a decade today destroyed a block-square Port Richmond lumber yard, half a dozen neighboring homes, and ate its way into the newly-rehabilitated Cramps Shipyard before being brought under control.

Loss to the lumber yard alone was estimated by firemen at well over a million dollars.

A physician was killed in a traffic accident while hurrying to the scene. A score of persons—firemen, spectators, and occupants of the burned homes—were injured, but none seriously.

Michael Regan, night watchman at the lumber yard, was missing, and his employers said they believed that if he had gotten out alive he would have reported to them.

Four hundred firemen were mobilized quickly after the first of the six alarms at 1:45 a. m. (EST). The flames, which had leaped a hundred feet into the air and burned night into day for blocks around, were pronounced under control at 8 a. m.

Destroyed in the lumber yard were 22,000,000 feet of lumber—all consigned to defense industries. The fire started in the yard.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation were dispatched to the scene and a spokesman said "we believe there is a possibility of sabotage."

Fire Marshal Jacob Clinton said the fire apparently "started at five points simultaneously, and the whole place seemed to blaze at once. It was the most peculiar fire I ever experienced."

The fire broke out in the heart of the lumber yard—but its cause was not immediately determined.

The fire scene is located in the north east section of the city in the heart of a rich industrial area adjoining the Delaware river.

Turned to smoldering debris was the yard of the Wilson H. Lear Lumber Company, bounded by Girard avenue on the north and Delaware avenue on the south.

The lumber company's garage, across the street also was destroyed, as was a three-story brick building occupied by the Erik Jansson Company, cabinet making factory. An official estimated the Jansson loss at $200,000.

Leaping across narrow Fletcher street on the west, the flames quickly leveled six frame houses, driving hysterical occupants out with no chance of saving their belongings.

Despite a water curtain thrown up by firemen, the fire spanned (Turn to Page Eight)

NEW AND DEADLY BATTLESHIP IS COMMISSIONED

Philadelphia, May 15.—(P)—A new and deadly link joins the nation's defense today with commissioning of the mighty battleship Washington six months ahead of schedule.

Rushed to completion in three years at a cost of $70,000,000, America's most powerful dreadnought raises the U. S. fleet's battle strength to 17 vessels.

Secretary of the Navy Knox will be the only speaker at brief but colorful ceremonies marking passing of the 335,000-ton ship from navy builders to her captain and crew.

Among some 1,000 special guests were other top ranking navy officials, headed by Admiral Ernest J. King, commander of the Atlantic fleet, and congressmen and representatives of the state of Washington for which the vessel is named.

Just a month ago the Washington's sister ship North Carolina was commissioned at Brooklyn navy yard.

The new dreadnought is a far cry from the first of six U. S. naval vessels to bear the name of Washington. The first was a galley mounting eight light guns and carrying a crew of 800, while the latest mounts nine 16-inch guns, six in three forward turrets and (Turn to Page Eight)

Reich Meat Rations To Be Cut June 20th

Berlin, May 15.—(P)—A 20 per cent reduction in Germany's weekly meat ration effective on June 2 was announced today by the food distribution bureau.

Under the new decree, the normal ration will be cut from 500 grams (one pound) a person to 400 grams weekly. Workers, whose rations will be correspondingly reduced, will be allowed 800 to 1,000 grams a week according to their type of labor.

A spokesman said the quotas would continue through the summer "because Germans eat less meat in summer and besides they have more vegetables."

SHIPMENTS TO NORTH AFRICA ARE WITHHELD

United States Sends Two Loaded Vessels of Badly Needed Supplies But Further Assignments are Delayed Pending Clarification

PRESSURE INTENSIFIED

BY LLOYD LEHRBAES
Washington, May 15.—(P)—The United States, it was learned authoritatively today, has sent two shipments of badly needed supplies to French North Africa, but further shipments are being withheld pending clarification of the colonists' role in the event of any closer "collaboration" between France and Germany.

At least one tanker laden with American oil and petroleum products has arrived in Casablanca, the colonies' only Atlantic port outside the combat zone, and another tanker is now en route, it was learned.

Diplomatic talks were reported under way here earlier this month, looking to a resumption of normal trade between the United States and Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia, but the news that some supplies had been sent was the first indication that any agreement had been worked out.

Since the tankers cleared American ports, however, swiftly changing developments in the North African situation—due to intensified German pressure on France for closer "collaboration"—were said to have caused American and British officials to mark time before rushing any more shipments.

While there has been no official statement, it was made clear in informed quarters that if Germany secures direct or indirect control of the French African colonies, no additional shipments will be made, or permission to pass through the British blockade.

The Nazis have long been credited in informed quarters with desiring control of Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia, or the right to use Oran and Bizerte, the French naval bases as a means of dominating the Mediterranean.

The French government "must escape responsibility for its situation."

"Their action under German orders in permitting these flights is clear: breach of the armistice rules," Eden said.

In Berlin, Nazi sources said Hitler was not expected to make a speech for the time being on the Hess episode.

Authoritative quarters in London spiced the riddle by declining to confirm unofficial but censored reports that the Nazi deputy Fuehrer, in defiance of Adolf Hitler's orders, fled to Britain as a self-constituted "apostle of peace."

United Automobile Workers Union Calls Out Members in Three Hudson Motor Company Plants in Detroit, as General Motors Corporation Admits Large Number of Men Have Left Their Chevrolet Shops

NUMEROUS DEFENSE CONTRACTS INVOLVED

BULLETIN
Detroit, May 15.—(P)—Operations in four General Motors units at Flint ceased today, despite the announced postponement of strike action against the corporation by the United Automobile Workers (CIO). Upwards of 35,000 workers in Chevrolet, Buick and two Fisher Body plants were affected. Officials of the UAW-CIO said the union workers apparently were unaware of the postponement of the strike.

The United Automobile Workers (CIO) union called a strike against three Hudson Motor Company plants in Detroit today and General Motors Corporation reported a walkout at its Flint, Mich., Chevrolet works despite agreement to postpone a strike against GM until Friday.

The Defense Mediation Board early this morning, only a few hours before a strike was set for 60 plants of General Motors in 22 states, announced a postponement for one day in the walkout. CIO union officials said they thought the stoppage at Flint took place because word of the postponement got there too late.

The Hudson walkout applied to three plants, with 8,500 employees, but union officials said work on a $10,000,000 defense order for airplane parts was not affected.

The union demanded a 15-cent-an-hour wage increase in undisclosed current scales at the Hudson Company. The board of directors considered the union demands. Claude E. Bland, president of the local union, said "the company refused any decent wage offer."

T. A. Johnstone of the General Motors Division of the UAW-CIO said at Detroit he was trying to get the 12,300 Chevrolet workers back on their jobs. The walkout also closed a Fisher Body plant, with 1,100 workers.

The General Motors postponement came shortly after settlement of a two day strike at Colt's Patent Fire Arms Manufacturing Company at Hartford, Conn.

GERMAN PLANES ARE REPORTED IN SYRIA

London, May 15.—(P)—A reliable source said today that German planes are landing in Syria en route to Iraq and that they would be bombed and machine-gunned by the British.

British reports from Cairo yesterday said, however, that a "German mission" had arrived in Syria. The purpose of the mission at the time was not explained.

As Prime Minister Announces Statement Will be Made at First Opportunity British Labor Minister Bevin Expresses Belief Nazi Leader Flew to Scotland With Full Knowledge of Fuehrer

British Labor Minister Ernest Bevin said today that he believed Nazi Deputy Fuehrer Rudolf Hess flew to Scotland with the full knowledge of Adolf Hitler, but that he doubted Hess came "out of mad sympathy for the British people."

In the first outspoken official comment on the bizarre episode, Bevin declared:

"From my point of view, Herr Hess is a murderer."

"You can understand my feeling when I tell you he was the man who collected an index card on every trade union leader in Germany and the social Democrats, and when the time came, they were sent either to concentration camps or murdered."

Prime Minister Winston Churchill told Commons he would report at the first opportunity on the Hess incident, "guided in the selection of that opportunity by the public interest."

Asked if there were any truth in a German radio suggestion that "Scotland is ready to make a separate peace with Germany," Churchill replied:

"Whatever delusions may exist, that is not among them."

Bevin's statement on the Hess mystery came as a series of developments indicated that Hitler may be starting a big-scale campaign in the Middle East. These included:

Smethport, May 15.—(P)—Peace officers of northern Pennsylvania and southern New York and FBI agents joined today in a systematic hunt for five young gunmen who yesterday robbed the First National Bank of Eldred of $5,311.70 in cash.

Sheriff George D. Calhoun, County Detective Murrel E. Dickinson, and District Attorney Claude W. Shattuck of McKean county and State Motor Police Sergeant John Mullaney led the search.

More than a score of state policemen were rushed into the district from adjoining areas and officials said at least two men from the Federal Bureau of Investigation had arrived.

The hunt centered in an area about Millport, between Shinglehouse and Coudersport in Potter county, some 20 miles east of Eldred. E. E. Drake, of Smethport, president of the bank, disclosed the bandits took $5,311.70, all but about $150 in silver coins being raided from one cash till. He said he did not believe there were any bills larger than $20 in the loot.

Drake was in the directors' room of the bank with Cashier G. I. Siglin at the time the robbers appeared, an hour after the doors were opened.

The lumber company's garage across the street also was destroyed, as was a three-story brick building occupied by the Erik Jansson Company, cabinet making factory. An official estimated the Jansson loss at $200,000.

Leaping across narrow Fletcher street on the west, the flames quickly leveled six frame houses, driving hysterical occupants out with no chance of saving their belongings.

OFFICIALS PLEAD TO SAVE WOMEN

Harrisburg, May 15.—(P)—Philadelphia's district attorney joined today in asking the board of pardons to spare Mrs. Josephine Romauldo from the electric chair for her part in the "murder-for-insurance" ring.

"It is the unanimous opinion of those in the district attorney's office who had anything to do with these cases that the ends of justice will be met if the board commutes the sentence to life imprisonment," said James W. Tracey, special assistant to District Attorney Charles F. Kelley.

Tracey explained to the board that his stand was based on the fact that life sentences were meted out to other women in the cases, including Mrs. Carina Pavata, who pleaded guilty to five deaths. Mrs. Romauldo was sentenced to die June 23 for the poisoning of her husband Antonio.

Reich Meat Rations To Be Cut June 20th

Berlin, May 15.—(P)—A 20 per cent reduction in Germany's weekly meat ration effective on June 2 was announced today by the food distribution bureau.

Under the new decree, the normal ration will be cut from 500 grams (one pound) a person to 400 grams weekly. Workers, whose rations will be correspondingly reduced, will be allowed 800 to 1,000 grams a week according to their type of labor.

A spokesman said the quotas would continue through the summer "because Germans eat less meat in summer and besides they have more vegetables."

SHIPMENTS TO NORTH AFRICA ARE WITHHELD

United States Sends Two Loaded Vessels of Badly Needed Supplies But Further Assignments are Delayed Pending Clarification

PRESSURE INTENSIFIED

By LLOYD LEHRBAS
Washington, May 15.—(P)—The United States, it was learned authoritatively today, has sent two shipments of badly needed supplies to French North Africa, but further shipments are being withheld pending clarification of the colonies' role in the event of any closer "collaboration" between France and Germany.

At least one tanker laden with American oil and petroleum products has arrived in Casablanca, the colonies' only Atlantic port outside the combat zone, and another tanker is now en route, it was learned.

Diplomatic talks were reported under way here earlier this month, looking to a resumption of normal trade between the United States and Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia, but the news that some supplies had been sent was the first indication that any agreement had been worked out.

Since the tankers cleared American ports, however, swiftly changing developments in the North African situation—due to intensified German pressure on France for closer "collaboration"—were said to have caused American and British officials to mark time before rushing any more shipments.

While there has been no official statement, it was made clear in informed quarters that if Germany secures direct or indirect control of the French African colonies, no additional shipments will be made.

The British blockade, which permitted to pass through the British blockade.

The Nazis have long been credited in informed quarters with desiring control of Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia, or the right to use Oran and Bizerte, the French naval bases as a means of dominating the Mediterranean.

AWAIT RESULTS OF RARE EYE OPERATION

Pittsburgh, May 15.—(P)—Parents of Ralph Voelker are anxiously awaiting the outcome of an attempt to transplant the cornea from the eye of a young woman recently burned to death, to the eye of their 20-year-old son whose sight was partially destroyed three years ago by an explosion of a white-wash spray.

The delicate operation was performed more than a week ago at the Eye and Ear Hospital, but it may be a month yet before surgeons know definitely whether it is successful.

There's Still Lot of Footwork In Uncle Sam's Army Boys at Indian Gap Learn

By DONALD ST. JOHN
Indian Gap, May 15.—(P)—Federalized National Guardsmen of Pennsylvania's 28th Division are beginning to wonder who started all the loose talk about the modern army traveling exclusively by motor truck.

A soldier's feet, they find, are still counted on heavily to get him around.

And when the infantry goes on a march, the soldiers really march, whereas in the artillery or cavalry a march means a movement by motor vehicle.

WALKOUT REPORTED AT FLINT

United Automobile Workers Union Calls Out Members in Three Hudson Motor Company Plants in Detroit, as General Motors Corporation Admits Large Number of Men Have Left Their Chevrolet Shops

BULLETIN
Detroit, May 15.—(P)—Operations in four General Motors units at Flint ceased today, despite the announced postponement of strike action against the corporation by the United Automobile Workers (CIO). Upwards of 35,000 workers in Chevrolet, Buick and two Fisher Body plants were affected. Officials of the UAW-CIO said the union workers apparently were unaware of the postponement of the strike.

By the Associated Press
The United Automobile Workers (CIO) union called a strike against three Hudson Motor Company plants in Detroit today and General Motors Corporation reported a walkout at its Flint, Mich., Chevrolet works despite agreement to postpone a strike against GM until Friday.

The Defense Mediation Board early this morning, only a few hours before a strike was set for 60 plants of General Motors in 22 states, announced a postponement for one day in the walkout. CIO union officials said they thought the stoppage at Flint took place because word of the postponement got there too late.

The Hudson walkout applied to three plants, with 8,500 employees, but union officials said work on a $10,000,000 defense order for airplane parts was not affected.

The union demanded a 15-cent-an-hour wage increase in undischarged current scales at the Hudson Company. The board of directors considered the union demands. Claude E. Bland, president of the local union, said "the company refused any decent wage offer."

T. A. Johnstone of the General Motors division of the UAW-CIO said at Detroit he was trying to get the 12,300 Chevrolet workers back on their jobs. The walkout also closed a Fisher Body plant, with 1,100 workers.

The General Motors postponement came shortly after settlement of a two day strike at Colt's Patent Fire Arms Manufacturing Company at Hartford, Conn.

GERMAN PLANES ARE REPORTED IN SYRIA

London, May 15.—(P)—A reliable source said today that German planes are landing in Syria en route to Iraq and that they would be bombed and machine-gunned by the British.

There was no immediate amplification of the report that Germans were using the French mandate in the Near East to rush reinforcements to Premier Rashid Ali Al Ghalani of Iraq.

British reports from Cairo yesterday said, however, that a "German mission" had arrived in Syria. The purpose of the mission at the time was not explained.

Alex J. German, administrator of the estate of Steven German, deceased, was awarded a verdict of $300 in a trespass action in county court today.

The defendant in the case was C. Bruce Riddell, in whose car Steven German was a passenger when it struck a culvert on Route 6, between Sheffield and Ludlow, on January 23, 1940. The plaintiff claimed the negligence of the defendant was the cause of the accident.

This case is Julia Ackerman, R. G. Ackerman and Calvert Fire Insurance Co. vs. C. E. Johnson and Goldie Johnson and grows out of an accident which occurred on Goodwill Hill, near Grand Valley, March 23, 1940, involving the cars driven by R. G. Ackerman and Goldie E. Johnson.

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Warren Kiwanis Club held Wednesday noon at the Center Hotel, members enjoyed instructive talks by three officials of the local schools on the work of supervised correspondence study which is being offered in Warren High School for the first time this year.

The speakers were Superintendent John G. Rossman, Principal Floyd W. Bathurst and A. N. Dunham, instructor.

All of the work is done under the direction of Pennsylvania State College, it was pointed out. During the first semester over 40 pupils were enrolled, taking eleven different courses. The enrollment for the second semester consists of 93 pupils in 27 courses.

In addition to providing greater variety of subjects that can be elected by students in the local high school, many of the courses are about community contacts. The boys are working on courses on automobiles, diesel engines and radio.

Report was made by three members of the local club who attended a division meeting at Oil City on Tuesday. They are Charles Lindberg, president; S. M. McClure and H. D. Baker.

ALL PLANS ARE ABANDONED FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

All plans for a Fourth of July celebration, which would have included a pageant to be presented three nights during the week, were abandoned by the Citizens' committee last evening at a meeting which was called to discuss the situation.

It developed that the special committee which has been working quietly for the past two weeks feeling out the sentiment in regard to raising approximately $1,500 for the proposed program, received very little encouragement, and after a lengthy discussion it was decided that because of the lack of interest and the present disturbed world situation, along with the numerous projects under way to raise funds for other purposes it would be wise to cancel all plans for a celebration this year.

The committee will continue to function centering its activities for other community projects including the sponsoring of the farewell dinners for Selective Service contingents made possible through the cooperation of the borough council and county commissioners.

Edward G. Robinson, Ida Lupino and John Garfield head the cast of "The Sea Wolf." Warner Bros. screen version of the famous Jack London novel, opens Friday and Saturday at the Library Theatre. The seven-day, which was adapted from London's novel by Robert Rossen, tells the powerful story of Wolf Larsen, most feared and hated captain who ever sailed the seas. Also featured are Gene Lockhart, Barry Fitzgerald, Alexander Knox, Stanley Ridges, Francis McDonald, Howard da Silva, and a supporting cast of hundreds of other players in the season's greatest action drama.

RARE DOUBLE FEATURE AT COLUMBIA TODAY AND FRIDAY

"Footsteps in the Dark"

All those who like mystery, excitement, adventure and humor in their films would do well to take themselves to the Columbia Theatre today and Friday and see the new Warner Bros. comedy-mystery, "Footsteps in the Dark," starring Errol Flynn. This is his first modern role in three years and let it be said here and now that Errol can find as much adventure in modern New York as he could on the Spanish Main.

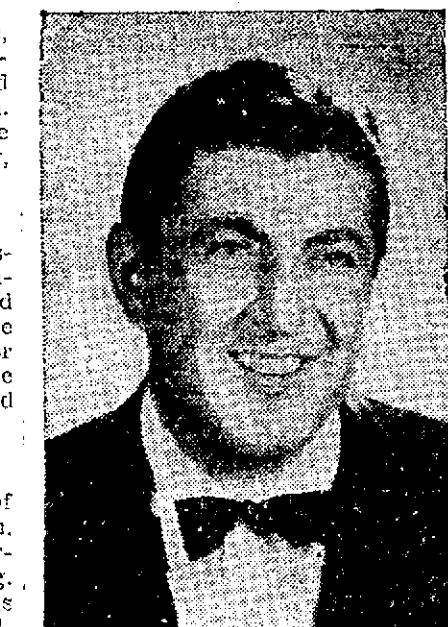

Charming Brenda Marshall, famous for her Mrs. Sea Hawk role, plays the lead opposite Flynn, and from advance reports she surpasses her "Sea Hawk" performance.

"Tobacco Road"

Packed with dramatic dynamite and interspersed with plenty of earthy, lusty humor, 20th Century-Fox's "Tobacco Road" opens today and Friday at the Columbia Theatre. Realistically produced by Darryl F. Zanuck, this sensational stage play which has rocked the theatrical world for eight years, has been transformed into the most memorable motion picture of our time. There's only one thing to do—see it!

"Tobacco Road" achieves perfection in casting. Charley Grapewin stands out as Jeeter Lester, while Marjorie Rambeau as Sister Bessie, Gene Tierney as Ellie May and William Tracy as Duke Lester turn in superb, convincing performances.

TONY PASTOR
Tony Pastor, who with his orchestra will appear at the Library Theatre on Tuesday, May 20, is not only one of the finest musicians of the day and best liked vocalists, because of his appealing style and personality, but is rated among the best in the song writing field along Tin Pan Alley.

All plans for a Fourth of July celebration, which would have included a pageant to be presented three nights during the week, were abandoned by the Citizens' committee last evening at a meeting which was called to discuss the situation.

It developed that the special committee which has been working quietly for the past two weeks feeling out the sentiment in regard to raising approximately $1,500 for the proposed program, received very little encouragement, and after a lengthy discussion it was decided that because of the lack of interest and the present disturbed world situation, along with the numerous projects under way to raise funds for other purposes it would be wise to cancel all plans for a celebration this year.

The committee will continue to function centering its activities for other community projects including the sponsoring of the farewell dinners for Selective Service contingents made possible through the cooperation of the borough council and county commissioners.

AGED PHYSICIAN DIES AT HOME IN BEAR LAKE

Dr. Hubert J. Phillips, one of the oldest practicing physicians in Warren county, died at his home in Bear Lake shortly after one o'clock this morning following a long illness.

He was born in Sugar Grove September 1, 1865, the son of Dr. Abel P. Phillips and Elizabeth Jones Phillips. He was graduated from Jamestown High School, Johns Hopkins College in Baltimore, Md., and the National Normal University in Lebanon, Ohio for four years, he returned to Bear Lake, continuing in partnership with his father for a time and serving the community for 40 years.

He was a member of the Christian church of Bear Lake and of the Warren County Medical Society.

He is survived by his wife, Phoebe Eddy Phillips; two sisters, Miss Nettie Phillips, of Bear Lake, and Mrs. Bessie Hawkins, of Lakewood, N. Y.; also a nephew, Herman P. Hawkins, of Lakewood. An only brother, Herman Phillips, died in St. Paul, Minn., five years ago.

Funeral services will be held from the family home in Bear Lake at three o'clock Saturday afternoon, with burial in the Bear Lake cemetery.

"THE SEA WOLF" AT THE LIBRARY THEATRE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Edward G. Robinson, Ida Lupino and John Garfield head the cast of "The Sea Wolf," Warner Bros. screen version of the famous Jack London novel, opens Friday and Saturday at the Library Theatre. The screenplay, which was adapted from London's novel by Robert Rossen, tells the powerful story of Wolf Larsen, most feared and hated captain who ever sailed the seas. Michael Curtiz, master of the action drama, directed. Also featured are Gene Lockhart, Barry Fitzgerald, Alexander Knox, Stanley Ridges, Francis McDonald, Howard da Silva, and a supporting cast of hundreds of other players in the season's greatest action drama.

RARE DOUBLE FEATURE ATTRACTION AT COLUMBIA TODAY AND FRIDAY

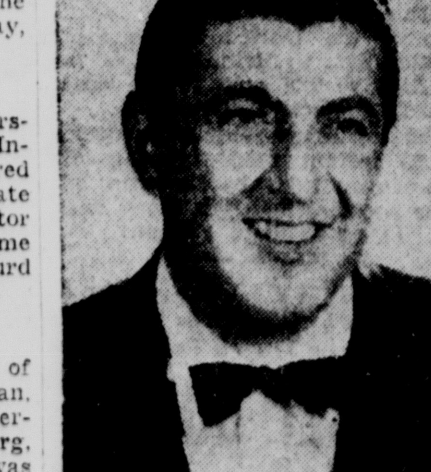

"Footsteps in the Dark" All those who like mystery, excitement, adventure and humor in their films would do well to take themselves to the Columbia Theatre today and Friday and see the new Warner Bros. comedy-mystery, "Footsteps in the Dark," starring Errol Flynn. This is his first modern role in three years and let it be said here and now that Errol can find as much adventure in modern New York as he could in the Spanish Main.

Charming Brenda Marshall, famous for her Mrs. Sea Hawk role, plays the lead opposite Flynn, and from advance reports she surpasses her "Sea Hawk" performance.

"Tobacco Road" Packed with dramatic dynamite and interspersed with plenty of earthy, lusty humor, 20th Century-Fox's "Tobacco Road" opens today and Friday at the Columbia Theatre. Realistically produced by Darryl F. Zanuck, this sensational stage play which has rocked the theatrical world for eight years, has been transformed into the most memorable motion picture of our time. There's only one thing to do—see it!

"Tobacco Road" achieves perfection in casting. Charles Grainger stands out as Jester Lester, while Marjorie Rambeau as Sister Bessie, Gene Tierney as Ellie May and William Tracey as Duke Lester turn in superb, convincing performances.

TONY PASTOR Tony Pastor, who with his orchestra will appear at the Library Theatre on Tuesday, May 20, is not only one of the finest musicians of the day and best liked vocalists, because of his appealing style and personality, but is rated among the best in the song writing field along Tin Pan Alley.

TONY PASTOR

The Song Writer

Tony has to his credit such outstanding instrumental numbers as "Vigwan Stomp," "Helen of Troy," "Blossoms," and "Jungle Stomp." He has collaborated with his drummer, Johnny Morris in the writing of "Paradiddle Joe," which

THE DUKE IS A FLIER TOO

The German story that Deputy Fuehrer Rudolf Hess tried to locate the Duke of Hamilton in his fantastic flight to Scotland involves a man who himself figures in a spectacular air adventure—the first successful plane flight over Mt. Everest.

It was in April, 1933, that the duke, then known as the Marquis of Douglas and Clydesdale—accompanied by Col. L. V. Stewart Blacker and Flight Lieutenant D. F. McIntyre, achieved the scientific goal of flying over the formidable 29,141-foot mist-shrouded peak which dominates the Himalayas.

The expedition, equipped with two planes and motion-picture cameras, made extensive preparations for the air assault on the world's highest peak, and in a preliminary test flight Clydesdale climbed 37,000 feet to check his plane and apparatus.

Clydesdale then was thirty years old, and long had been known to British sports fans as the "boxing Marquis" for his frequent appearances in the amateur ring. He was a member of parliament for East Renfrewshire.

Last year, the 77-year-old Duke of Hamilton and Brandon died and Clydesdale inherited the title. He is a squadron leader in the R. A. F.

The 38-year-old duke, christened Douglas Douglas-Hamilton, was educated at Eton and Oxford and in 1937 married Lady Elizabeth Ivy Percy, daughter of the eighth duke of Northumberland.

Authorized quarters in Berlin said that documents left behind by Hess indicated he hoped to establish contact with the Duke of Hamilton and through him achieve some kind of an understanding between Britain and Germany.

He became acquainted with the duke during one of the latter's visits to Germany.

FLAG DAY

President Roosevelt, declaring it particularly fitting that "we reaffirm our faith in the ideals for which our flag stands," formally designates Saturday, June 14th, as Flag Day, although the local exercises sponsored annually by the Warren Lodge of Elks will be held on the evening of Friday, June 13th, at the club house at the corner of Hickory street and Fourth avenue.

The chief executive calls upon the American people, in his proclamation, to observe the day by suitable ceremonies and by display of the flag.

"At this time when the principles of unity and freedom symbolized by Old Glory are under attack," he says, "it is especially fitting that we reaffirm our faith in the ideals for which our flag stands and our loyalty to the nation over which it has waved for more than a century and a half."

June 14th is the anniversary of the day in 1777 when the Continental Congress formally adopted the Stars and Stripes as the national banner of the United States.

CELEBRATION CALLED OFF

It will be a source of considerable disappointment to Warren residents as well as to thousands in surrounding communities to learn that plans for a Fourth of July celebration this summer have been abandoned by the Citizens committee.

At a meeting last evening the entire situation was reviewed and considered at length after which it was decided that because of the lack of interest and difficulty in raising the required finances, along with the short time intervening, that plans for a celebration which would have included a pageant to be produced three nights during the first week in July would be abandoned.

It is sincerely hoped that another year will find Warren again taking its place among the towns in the section where Independence Day is celebrated in a manner in keeping with the importance of the date.

A proposal to redivide the congressional districts in the state to include Warren and Elk counties for the 20th district and add Armstrong, with Warren being moved to the 19th district, along with Crawford and Erie, has been made, but that doesn't sound so hot.

For stealing the spotlight, it seems to be a super-performance.

UNCLE SAM SPENDING MILLIONS TO KEEP FAULTY NATIONS' AMERICAN ASSETS OUT OF AXIS HANDS

Washington, May 15.—Some consideration being given to the idea of freezing the $150 million worth of German assets now held in the United States, adding this little nest egg to the $4.5 billion of this country's assets owned by the nationals of the 14 nations Hitler has taken over, there should be corrected the erroneous idea that when this freezing process takes place, the money is put in a bank and left there till something else freezes over.

In the first place, these assets aren't all money. They may be stocks and bonds, or they may be real property like apartment houses, or they may be businesses like drug or optical goods manufacturing establishments, or importing houses or agencies for the wholesaling of French perfumes or Yugoslavian oil. The point is that all these assets don't have to be converted into cash and the cash stuck off in a safety deposit vault.

All these businesses are allowed to carry on pretty much as usual. If they make a profit on their operations, that's all right too. The only restrictions are that the profits or proceeds can't be sent back to the occupied country where they might be seized for the benefit of the Nazis.

The U. S. Treasury doesn't attempt to run these businesses.

either. The treasury has enough headaches of its own and you wouldn't call this foreign-owned property control an aspirin. Management of frozen assets is left where it was before, the freezing took place, subject only to licensing and control of the Treasury regulations. In this respect, the freezing differs entirely from the work of the Alien Property Custodian in the last war when physical control and management were taken on all enemy assets.

The present Treasury control costs the owners of the assets nothing. It will cost the Treasury nearly $2 million to exercise this control in the next year, but the government considers this money well spent as it prevents the dumping of these assets on U. S. markets and as it prevents these assets from falling into the hands of Germany through Nazi pressure on residents of the occupied countries.

An interesting contrast, not a parallel to this situation, is the case of what has happened to American capital in Germany. U. S. nationals own about $200 million assets in Germany, $50 million more than Germans own here. Ford, General Motors, Singer Sewing Machine, Woolworth, International Telephone & Telegraph, Electric Bond and Share and Union Carbide are some of the biggest. Of course, those firms haven't been able to get a dime out of Germany since Hitler. In most cases, the plants are undoubtedly at work on German war orders today through out-

STORIES IN STAMPS

Descendant of Incas Tried to Restore Empire

THE 10-year administration of Andres Santa Cruz, pictured on the Bolivian stamp above, was one of the most brilliant in the history of the Latin American republic. Reforms which he instituted placed Bolivia upon a firm basis for future development.

Descended from Atahualpa, last of the Inca emperors through his mother, Santa Cruz received his military training in the Spanish army, but later adopted the patriot cause and gained distinction in the struggle for independence. He headed Bolivia's Council of state, governed Peru during the Liberator's absence, served as minister to Chile. He was elected president of Bolivia in 1828.

Santa Cruz gave Bolivia its legal code, established universities at La Paz and Cochabamba. But his ambition ruined him.

In 1836 he united Peru and Bolivia in a confederation, named himself "Supreme Protector." Chile declared war, broke the confederation and sent Santa Cruz into exile.

CRANIUM CRACKERS

Across the Plate

With a swing and a crack as ball meets bat, the nation is getting into the baseball spirit. The season is entering its second month, so batter up, and try to score a home run on these questions about the great American game.

1. How many outs were there in a nine-inning game won by the home team?
2. If a team plays 10 nine-inning games, five at home and five away, and wins all of them, how many innings was it up to bat?
3. What has the town of Mudville to do with baseball?
4. What teams played in the world series of 1939 and 1940, and which were winners?
5. What former baseball player holds the most consecutive games record?

THE DUKE IS A FLIER TOO

The German story that Deputy Fuehrer Rudolf Hess tried to locate the Duke of Hamilton in his fantastic flight to Scotland involves a man who himself figures in a spectacular air adventure—the first successful plane flight over Mt. Everest.

It was in April, 1933, that the duke, then known as the Marquess of Douglas and Clydesdale—accompanied by Col. L. V. Stewart Blacker and Flight Lieutenant D. F. McIntyre, achieved the scientific goal of flying over the formidable 29,141-foot mist-shrouded peak which dominates the Himalayas.

The expedition, equipped with two planes and motion-picture cameras, made extensive preparations for the air assault on the world's highest peak, and in a preliminary test flight Clydesdale climbed 37,000 feet to check his plane and apparatus.

Clydesdale then was thirty years old, and long had been known to British sports fans as the "boxing Marquess" for his frequent appearances in the amateur ring. He was a member of parliament for East Renfrewshire.

Last year, the 77-year-old Duke of Hamilton and Brandon died and Clydesdale inherited the title. He is a squadron leader in the R. A. F.

The 38-year-old duke, christened Douglas Douglas-Hamilton, was educated at Eton and Oxford and in 1937 married Lady Elizabeth Ivy Percy, daughter of the eighth duke of Northumberland.

Authorized quarters in Berlin said that documents left behind by Hess indicated he hoped to establish contact with the Duke of Hamilton and through him achieve some kind of an understanding between Britain and Germany.

He became acquainted with the duke during one of the latter's visits to Germany.

FLAG DAY

President Roosevelt, declaring it particularly fitting that "we reaffirm our faith in the ideals for which our flag stands," formally designates Saturday, June 14th, as Flag Day, although the local exercises sponsored annually by the Warren Lodge of Elks will be held on the evening of Friday, June 13th, at the club house at the corner of Hickory street and Fourth avenue.

The chief executive calls upon the American people, in his proclamation, to observe the day by suitable ceremonies and by display of the flag.

"At this time when the principles of unity and freedom symbolized by Old Glory are under attack," he says, "it is especially fitting that we reaffirm our faith in the ideals for which our flag stands and our loyalty to the nation over which it has waved for more than a century and a half."

June 14th is the anniversary of the day in 1777 when the Continental Congress formally adopted the Stars and Stripes as the national banner of the United States.

CELEBRATION CALLED OFF

It will be a source of considerable disappointment to Warren residents as well as to thousands in surrounding communities to learn that plans for a Fourth of July celebration this summer have been abandoned by the Citizens committee.

At a meeting last evening the entire situation was reviewed and considered at length after which it was decided that because of the lack of interest and difficulty in raising the required finances, along with the short time intervening, that plans for a celebration which would have included a pageant to be produced three nights during the first week in July would be abandoned.

It is sincerely hoped that another year will find Warren again taking its place among the towns in the section where Independence Day is celebrated in a manner in keeping with the importance of the date.

A proposal at Harrisburg to reapportion congressional districts in the state would subtract Warren and Elk counties from the 20th district and add Armstrong, with Warren being moved into the 29th district, along with Crawford and Erie. On first thought that doesn't sound so hot.

For stealing the spotlight, Mr. Hess seems to be a super-performer.

UNCLE SAM SPENDING MILLIONS TO KEEP FALLEN NATIONS' AMERICAN ASSETS OUT OF HIS HANDS

Washington, May 15.—Some consideration being given to the idea of freezing the $150 million worth of German assets now held in the United States, adding this little nest egg to the $4.5 billions of this country's assets owned by the nationals of the 14 nations Hitler has taken over, there should be corrected the erroneous idea that when this freezing process takes place, the money is put in a bank and left there till something else freezes over.

In the first place, these assets aren't all money. They may be stocks and bonds, or they may be real property like apartment houses, or they may be businesses like drug or optical goods manufacturing establishments, or importing houses or agencies for the wholesaling of French perfumes or Yugoslavian opium. The point is that all these assets don't have to be converted into cash and the cash stuck off in a safety deposit vault.

All these businesses are allowed to carry on pretty much as usual. If they make a profit on their operations, that's all right too. The only restrictions are that the profits or proceeds can't be sent back to the occupied country where they might be seized for the benefit of the Nazis.

The U. S. Treasury doesn't attempt to run these businesses, either. The treasury has enough headaches of its own and you wouldn't call this foreign-owned property control an aspirin. Management of frozen assets is left where it was before the freezing took place, subject only to licensing and control of the Treasury regulations. In this respect, the freezing differs entirely from the work of the Alien Property Custodian in the last war when physical control and management were taken on all enemy assets.

The present Treasury control costs the owners of the assets nothing. It will cost the Treasury nearly $2 million to exercise this control in the next year, but the government considers this money well spent as it prevents the dumping of these assets on U. S. markets and as it prevents these assets from falling into the hands of Germany through Nazi pressure on residents of the occupied countries.

An interesting contrast, not a parallel to this situation, is the case of what has happened to American capital in Germany. U. S. nationals own about $200 million assets in Germany, $50 million more than Germans own here. Ford, General Motors, Singer Sewing Machine, Woolworth, International Telephone & Telegraph, Electric Bond and Share and Union Carbide are some of the biggest. Of course, these firms haven't been able to get a dime out of Germany since Hitler. In most cases, the plants are undoubtedly at work on German war orders today through out-

STORIES IN STAMPS

Descendant of Incas Tried to Restore Empire

THE 10-year administration of Andres Santa Cruz, pictured on the Bolivian stamp above, was one of the most brilliant in the history of the Latin American republic. Reforms which he instituted placed Bolivia upon a firm basis for future development.

Descended from Atahualpa, last of the Inca emperors through his mother, Santa Cruz received his military training in the Spanish army, but later adopted the patriotic cause and gained distinction in the struggle for independence. He headed Bolivia's Council of state, governed Peru during the Liberator's absence, served as minister to Chile. He was elected president of Bolivia in 1828.

Santa Cruz gave Bolivia its legal code, established universities at La Paz and Cochabamba. But his ambition ruined him.

In 1836 he united Peru and Bolivia in a confederation, named himself "Supreme Protector." Chile declared war, broke the confederation and sent Santa Cruz into exile.

Everytime he raids the cookie jar...

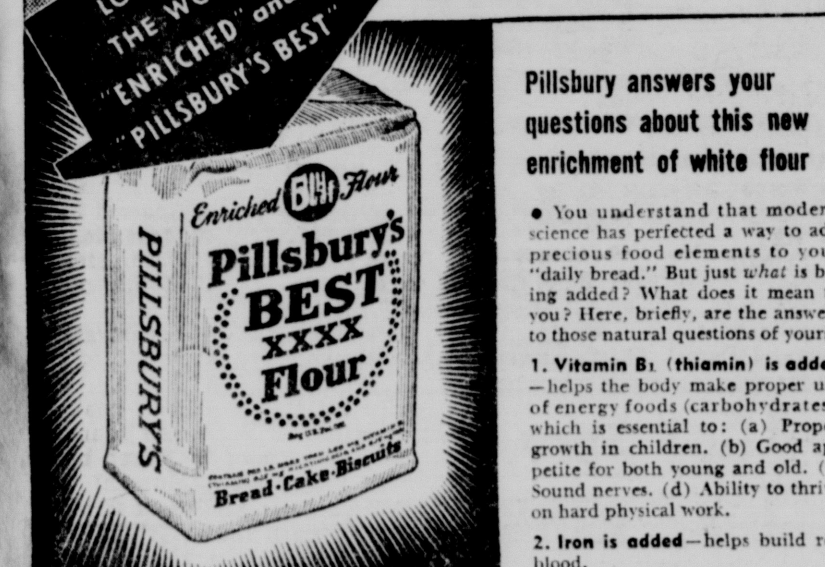

He gets B-vitamins he needs for proper growth — if those cookies were made with Enriched Pillsbury's Best Flour!

Here is the most important news of the year for wives and mothers: If you give your family plenty of baked goods made with Enriched Pillsbury's Best Flour, you give them iron and precious B-vitamins which they need every day — vitamins essential to proper growth in children and to the health and well-being of your whole family — needed if their bodies are to make proper use of energy foods (carbohydrates). This is essential to sound nerves, good appetite, the ability to thrive on hard physical work!

At last — these vitamins are within the means of every family! For flour — even the finest flour — is one of the least expensive foods known to man! Remember — good-baking flour, even if it is enriched, is still inferior flour. And remember — something else — enrichment itself must be done carefully, so that each bag will be uniformly enriched. The same strict milling standards which make Pillsbury's Best a fine "baking" flour also make it a uniformly enriched flour!

Say to your grocer, "I want..."

Enriched Pillsbury's Best Flour

LOOK FOR THE WORDS "ENRICHED" and "PILLSBURY'S BEST"

★ It's the same fine, dependable PILLSBURY'S BEST... now enriched!
★ NO CHANGE IN FLAVOR

★ NO CHANGE IN BAKING QUALITIES

When the assets of any nation are frozen in the United States, what happens first is that word goes from the Treasury Foreign Funds Control office, under Assistant Secretary John W. Pehle, to the 12 Federal Reserve Banks. These banks notify their member banks, brokers, agents and others dealing in foreign exchanges that assets of these foreign nationals must be scheduled with the Federal Reserve Bank within 30 days. Owners of assets less than $250 are exempted, as are the foreign nationals who are resident and domiciled in the United States.

All others, however, are licensed for 90-day, renewable periods to carry on their business, spending so much money a month in the several categories conforming to the type of business they had been doing. Reports must then be filed to show how the money was actually spent.

Efforts have been made to reduce as much as possible the red tape. All these negotiations are necessarily complicated, but as the activities in foreign funds control progressed, it became apparent that there were a number of standardized transactions which could be adequately controlled by general licenses.

It is a tremendous job, this freezing of assets. Starting with a small force in the Treasury, the foreign funds control force has grown to over 160 in Washington. For offices it has taken over a whole floor in the big Raleigh hotel with an option on space in two more floors.

No wonder it's hard to get a room in Washington these days.

PATTERN 4766
BY ANNE ADAMS

Of course you can look slim, no matter what the scales may read! Here's proof in Pattern 4766 by Anne Adams. Designed to flatter the thirty-six-to-fifty sized figure, it both accents your height and takes away from your width across. The two outstanding slenderizing details are the tapered, all-down-in-front panel and the seaming that slants in from either side, over the smooth hips, letting you omit the belt if you like. Even in back there's a beautiful effect in a low-pointed waist-line with neat darts above. More darts at the front shoulders hold-in the softness of the bodice. The front panel may form a point at the neckline or you might have a squared neck and add a pretty lace-trimmed collar of contrast or self-fabric.

Pattern 4766 is available in women's sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 3½ yards 39 inch fabric.

Stenographers' Club Elvidge Class Has Style Presentation Complimentary Fete Breaks All Records For Mrs. Pressel

It seems the unanimous opinion of all who attended the annual Stenographers' Club style show at the high school last evening that this year's presentation is superior in many ways to any previous showing the organization has sponsored.

Clothes shown by E. L. Stein and the Printz Company were appropriate for the carefully worked out scenes and the LaVogue Beauty Salon arranged the girls' hair in the latest coiffures.

One of the highlights of the show was the public speaking class, which accurately portrayed the work of developing poise, good posture and speaking ability. The Girls' Club tea scene was also a highlight. A table beautifully set with silver, candles and flowers formed the background for dressy afternoon clothes and covers and palms from the Cresent Floral Shop added to the festive air.

Events moved along in a near-professional manner and there was general commendation for the efforts of Irene Peck, production manager, in the smoothness of the production. Praise ran high for the clever monolog writer and given by Jean Rasmussen to accompany the original cast. The public address system was loaned by the Turner Radio Shop and the Harry Summers furnished the music.

Seen as models were Ann Oliskey, Rosamond DeLong, Patty Hand, Betty Urbanek, Betty Dobson, Dorothy Walsh, Golden Homer, Jeannette Loucks, Jean Peterson, Loraine Johnson, Anne Ringler, Betty Birchard, Ann Russell, Mary Maniakas, Fowler Spiedel, Richard Thompson, Edward Amann, Jack Karl, Blandin Cooney, William Brooks, Merle Seymour.

Among those participating in musical selections and other features interspersing the scenes were Joe Cannon, Frederick Irwin, George Wiedmaier, Betsi Thomas, Shirley Allen, Jean Erickson, Virginia Davis, Lois Evelyn Johnson, Mary Friend.

Merle Seymour, president of the Stenographers' Club presented a beautiful corsage to Mrs. Allison Wade, advisor.

BY ANNE ADAMS

Of course you can look slim, no matter what the scales may read: Here's proof in Pattern 4766 by Anne Adams. Designed to flatter the thirty-six-to-fifty sized figure, it both accents your height and takes away from your width across. The two outstanding slenderizing details are the tapered, all-down-the-front panel and the seaming that slants in from either side, over the smooth hips, letting you omit the belt if you like. Even in back, there's a becoming effect in a low-pointed seam. More darts at the front shoulders hold-in the softness of the bodice. The front panel may form a point at the neckline, or you might have a squared neck and add a pretty lace-edged collar of contrast or self-fabric.

Pattern 4766 is available in women's sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 3½ yards 39 inch fabric.

Mrs. Allie Russell Is Relected President of Philomel Club; Final Program of the Season

Mrs. Allie Russell was honored with reelection to the post of Philomel Club president at a brief business session which preceded the final program-meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse.

The remainder of the slate for next year, the golden jubilee of the club, is as follows:

First vice president, Mrs. Walter Murphy; second vice president, Mrs. W. M. Robertson; secretary, Miss Evelyn Samuelson; treasurer, Mrs. Thomas H. Conway; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Harriet Wilkins; librarian, Miss Mary Blocher; music committee chairman, Mrs. Louis Rabin; publicity committee chairman, Mrs. Lyle N. Schuler; house committee chairman, Mrs. E. E. Corbett; finance committee chairman, Mrs. N. D. Paterson.

Routine reports were presented by the secretary and treasurer, Miss Samuelson and Mrs. Conway, and plans were discussed for summer social activities of the club. A public card party was tentatively planned; also a pleasing musical event for July.

Mrs. Russell expressed her sincere appreciation for the cooperation given her in the past year and asked that all work to make the coming 50th anniversary year the finest in the club's history.

She opened the afternoon program-meeting with reference to the summer plans and Miss Samuelson reported the newly-elected officers. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Mary Albrecht, who had arranged a pleasing program.

Piano solos were played by Mrs. T. H. Conway, Mrs. Charles Eaton, Miss Romaine Meacham, Mrs. Kenneth Bjers and Mrs. Russell, with a two-piano number by Miss Lillian Larsen and Mrs. Conway. Mrs. Ernest Fogel was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Russell for a group of three pleasing soprano solos, and Mrs. Albrecht provided accompaniment for three numbers by a quartet composed of Mrs. Fogel, Mrs. Charles Eaton, Mrs. Everett Borg and Mrs. J. A. Johnson.

The concluding item on the afternoon's program was the tea time in the club parlors, with Mrs. H. F. Clawson heading the hostess committee.

Stenographers' Club Elvidge Class Has Style Presentation Breaks All Records

It seems the unanimous opinion of all who attended the annual Stenographers' Club style show at the high school last evening that this year's presentation is superior in many ways to any previous showing the organization has sponsored.

Clothes shown by E. L. Stein and the Printz Company were appropriate for the carefully worked out scenes and the LaVogue Beauty Salon arranged the girls' hair in the latest coiffures.

One of the highlights of the show was the public speaking class, which accurately portrayed the work of developing poise, good posture and speaking ability. The Girls' Club tea scene was also a highlight. A table beautifully set with silver, candles and flowers formed the background for dressy afternoon clothes, and flowers and palms from the Crescent Floral Shop added to the festive air.

Events moved along in a near-professional manner and there was general commendation for the efforts of Irene Peck, production manager, in the smoothness of the production. Praise ran high for the clever monolog written and given by Jean Rasmussen to accompany the original skit. The public address system was loaned by the Turner Radio Shop and Harry Summers furnished the music.

Seen as models were Ann Olksky, Rosamond DeLong, Patti Hand, Betty Urbanaki, Betty Dobson, Dorothy Walsh, Golden Homer, Jeannette Loucks, Jean Peterson, Lorraine Johnson, Anne Ringler, Betty Birchard, Ann Russell, Mary Maniakas, Fowler Spiedel, Richard Thompson, Edward Amann, Jack Karl, Blandin Cooney, William Brooks, Merle Seymour.

Among those participating in musical selections and other features interspersing the scenes were Joe Cannon, Frederick Irwin, George Wiedmaier, Betsy Thomas, Shirley Allen, Jean Erickson, Virginia Davis, Lois Evelyn Johnson, Mary Freund.

Merle Seymour, president of the Stenographers' Club, presented a beautiful corsage to Mrs. Allison Wade, advisor.

Elvidge Class Has Complimentary Fete For Mrs. Pressel

Elvidge Class members of the First Presbyterian church gathered at the Y. W. C. A. activities building last evening to compliment their teacher, Mrs. O. A. Pressel, who was observing her birthday anniversary.

Spring flowers were used throughout the room and in crystal bowls on the pretty dinner table. Silver candelabra held white candles and candles were colored to match the clever place cards. Later, a birthday cake with lighted candles was brought in and all joined in singing "Happy Birthday."

Miss Kate Winger offered prayer and Miss Mabel Abbott, class president, presented a gift from the group. This was a dedication to the Elvidge Class, thus forming a lasting friendship with its instructor. Others who voiced greetings were Miss Emma Burgie, Miss Alice Mead, Mrs. Carl Peel, Mrs. C. W. Henderson, Mrs. O. E. Dodd and Mrs. J. H. McBride.

To close, Mrs. J. H. West led the singing of "We Would Be Builders," dedicating the first verse to Mrs. Pressel. Mrs. R. C. Pickett was at the piano for this group singing.

Arrangements for this very delightful event were in the hands of Mrs. Thomas Perks and Miss Mabel Siggins, as co-chairmen.

Shipyard Is Menaced By Flames

Dyott street to the east and ignited a loft building on the edge of the Cramp Shipbuilding yard. The flames were kept from the rest of the yard.

The physician killed on route to the scene was Dr. Pedro Carreras, 50. He suffered a fractured skull in a collision of his car and another. Three other persons were injured in other accidents before 20 police succeeded in re-routing traffic from the neighborhood.

Police evacuated 100 homes in the area as intense heat broke windows on all sides.

The flames were visible for 20 miles, and were seen in parts of New Jersey and Delaware.

Wilson H. Lear, one of the owners of the lumber yard, said: "We had 22,000,000 feet of lumber in the yard and it is a total loss. We have been doing business with the army, navy, arsenals and other defense agencies."

Directing the biggest test of his command, Fire Chief William Cowden ran hose lines to all plugs in a five-block radius. A fire boat moved up to a Delaware river pier and pumped muddy water into the high pressure lines that began to fall off because of the tremendous strain.

Hose lines, baked dry by the heat, caught fire and had to be replaced. In the vicinity, numerous householders hauled out their garden hoses and wetted down the hot fronts of their homes.

Hysterical women, blankets wrapped around their night clothing, ran through the streets, leading children by the hand. Sparks whirled everywhere.

The fire was the third six-alarm in Philadelphia in the last 18 years. A block was swept by flames May 9, 1928, at Hancock and Oxford streets, destroying a furniture warehouse. On June 11, 1923, the Pennsylvania Railroad's Broad street station was destroyed at a loss of $1,000,000.

a letup and soften them for new blows by Germany."

The Riddle of Rudolf Hess was complicated today when authoritative quarters declined to confirm the British Press Association's report that Hess parachuted onto a Scottish moor last Saturday night as a self-constituted apostle of German-British peace.

Prime Minister Churchill, who is generally assumed to have talked with Hess, apparently wants more information from the erstwhile No. 2 Nazi before laying the whole affair before parliament and public.

An extensive Churchill statement had been expected today, but by late afternoon it became certain the prime minister had decided to postpone it. When it will come is uncertain.

Hess is still nursing his ankle fracture at an unidentified military hospital.

The thesis that Hess came here as a self-appointed emissary of peace, without the sanction of the German government, was based largely on these facts gleaned from informed sources:

1. That Hess some time ago wrote a letter—presumably a peace-feeler—to the Duke of Hamilton, an acquaintance of pre-war days.
2. That the spot Hess picked for his parachute landing in Scotland last Saturday night was near the duke's estate and that he asked to see the duke when he was found, suffering from a broken ankle.
3. That he carried a map with his course from Germany marked in blue pencil and the duke's estate circled, indicating that was his destination.

These facts coincided with the statement of German officials that Hess had left behind documents indicating he had flown to Scotland without official sanction to see the Duke of Hamilton in the belief that with the latter's help he could end the war.

Doyt street to the east and ignited a loft building on the edge of the Cramp shipbuilding yard. The flames were kept from the rest of the yard.

The physician killed en route to the scene was Dr. Pedro Carreras, 50. He suffered a fractured skull in a collision of his car and another. Three other persons were injured in other accidents before 20 police succeeded in re-routing traffic from the neighborhood.

Police evacuated 100 homes in the area as intense heat broke windows on all sides.

The flames were visible for 20 miles, and were seen in parts of New Jersey and Delaware.

Wilson H. Lear, one of the owners of the lumber yard, said: "We had 22,000,000 feet of lumber in the yard and it is a total loss. We have been doing business with the army, navy, arsenals and other defense agencies."

Directing the biggest test of his command, Fire Chief William Cowden ran hose lines to all plugs in a five-block radius. A fire boat moved up to a Delaware river pier and pumped muddy water into the high pressure lines that began to fall off because of the tremendous drain.

Hose lines, baked dry by the heat, caught fire and had to be replaced. In the vicinity, numerous householders hauled out their garden hoses and wetted down the hot fronts of their homes.

Hysterical women, blankets wrapped around their night clothing, ran through the streets, leading children by the hand. Sparks rained everywhere.

The fire was the third slalamer in Philadelphia in the last 18 years. A block was swept by flames May 9, 1928, at Hancock and Oxford streets, destroying a furniture warehouse. On June 11, 1923, the Pennsylvania Railroad's Broad street station trainshed was destroyed at a loss of $1,000,000.

SCOUT COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING TO MAKE PLANS

Warren County Girl Scout Council members held their monthly meeting at the home of the commissioner, Mrs. T. L. Armstrong, Fourth avenue, on Tuesday afternoon, hearing reports and, later, visiting Camp Bird-sall Edey at Grunderville for an inspection tour.

Mrs. Fred Abendroth, reporting for the camp committee, reminded members that it was just four weeks that all fathers of Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts are asked to meet at camp with their daughters on Saturday of this week to assist in making camp ready for the season.

Miss Nelson Johnson, chairman of the program committee, reported that the Warren county personal health project has received the enthusiastic approval of Dr. Margaret Lewis, national health and safety advisor, and that copies of the local council's plan have been requested for distribution in other councils.

The public relations committee reported that colored moving pictures were taken of the recent Americanism and Health Day ceremonies at the city building; also of the May day activities at camp.

Members of council who wish to take the Red Cross first aid course were asked to enroll by Mrs. William Glassman, chairman of the training committee.

The resignation of the office secretary, Miss Elizabeth Lopez, was accepted and it was stated that Mrs. Homer Johnson will substitute in that capacity.

The Warren County Leaders' Association, meeting in the Girl Scout "Little House" at Ludlow on Tuesday evening, voted to change its meeting to the third Tuesday of each month and accepted the resignation of Miss Elizabeth Lopez as secretary of the group.

Ludlow Troop 15, whose members are working on hostess badges, served refreshments and the remainder of the evening was devoted to instruction in the fundamental steps of square dancing.

The next association meeting will be held at Girl Scout camp on June 17.

West Hickory, May 14.—A Mother's Day mother and daughter banquet was held on last Thursday evening at the community house at this place, with 118 suppers served to the mothers and daughters. The banquet was planned and served by the men, assisted by Troop 84 of the West Hickory Boy Scouts. Rev. Stevenson, pastor of the Methodist church, talked briefly following the banquet, and music was furnished by the following boys: Kenneth and John Simmons, Paul Pascarella, Lyle Menteer, Jack Gesin. A huge birthday cake made for the occasion was viewed and later enjoyed by all. At the close, a photographer was on hand to take their pictures. This being the first mother and daughter banquet ever held in this place, we are hoping it will not be the last.

Spring Is Logical Season for Inventory, Declares Mrs. Mabel Bowen, Suggesting Clean-Up Drive Outside And In the Home

Dear Friends In Warren:

Spring inventory in the home is more appropriate than a January check-up. The annual rebirth of Nature is reflected in a reawakening of interest in rearranging and refurnishing the home—a sort of "out with the old, in with the new" spirit.

Nor is inventory time limited to indoors, for the clean-up drive logically begins in the yards with the weeding out of rubbish as well as dried plant life, and extends through garden and garage. A tidy approach usually is the index of an orderly home.

Spring clean-up programs in communities throughout the nation are being approached this year with more determination by members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, according to Mrs. Chester E. Edwards, chairman of the Home Safety Division. In a message to all homemakers, Mrs. Edwards declared:

"Our national defense program calls for unified effort by all citizens. We must use every opportunity to conserve as well as to produce. This year, 1941, should call for the best effort of clubwomen everywhere in the reduction of losses arising from home accidents and fires. While efforts are being made to speed up production on our industrial front, the least the women of the country can do is to make our homes safe places in which to live."

The slogan of the Spring Clean-up program this year is: "Dirt, dirtiness, desolation, disease and death deter defense." This is the theme of the program which has been sent to state and district Home Safety chairmen in every state by Mrs. Edwards. The program was drafted by T. Alfred Fleming, chairman of the National Fire Protection Association committee in charge of the annual observance of the occasion.

Mrs. Edwards has provided clubwomen with a statement of objectives for Spring Clean-up Week. If every homemaker adopted these suggestions, the nation would be safer, as well as orderly and more inviting to live in. Here are the objectives:

"Good housekeeping is a cardinal rule in fire prevention. Accumulation of rubbish should be removed from cellars, attics, closets, garages and barns. Yards can be cleaned. Homes, outbuildings and fences can be painted. Walks and driveways can be placed in good condition. Yards and gardens can be spruced up for the spring season.

Even our landlord couldn't resist this Spry FULL FLAVOR Cocoa Cream Cake

So tender, delicate, moist—and purer Spry lets you get the FULL rich chocolaty flavor

OUR HOUSE needed painting. The landlord said NO! But the next time he called we were at dinner. "Do sit down and sample my Cocoa Cream Cake," I urged. (Smart little me!)

HE LOVED IT, raved about the grand chocolaty taste. (For Spry doesn't "smother" flavor as ordinary shortening may.) And when he finished his second piece, he up and offered to paint the house!

DON'T risk losing some of the deliciousness of this wonderful cake by making it with ordinary shortening that may "dull" flavor. Be sure to use Spry, the flavor saver! Spry's purer, stays fresh longer, creams easily. Three extra advantages and only Spry gives all three. Change to Spry today for all your baking and frying—hear the compliments!

COCOA CREAM CAKE

1/2 cup Spry 1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon vanilla 1/2 cup cocoa
1 1/2 cups sugar 2 cups sifted flour
2 eggs, unbeaten 1 cup sour cream

Blend Spry, salt and vanilla. Add sugar gradually and cream well. (Don't let easy with triple-creamed Spry!) Add eggs, singly, beating well after each addition. Sift baking powder, soda and cocoa with flour 3 times. Add flour to creamed mixture, alternately with sour cream, mixing after each addition until smooth.

Bake in two 8-inch Spry-coated layer pans in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 to 35 minutes. Spread Cocoa Cream Frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake.

COCOA CREAM FROSTING

2 tablespoons Spry 1/2 cup cocoa
1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar 6 tablespoons scalded butter
1 teaspoon vanilla cream (about)
1/4 teaspoon salt

Blend Spry, butter, vanilla and salt. Sift cocoa with confectioners' sugar. Beat in 1/2 cup sugar-cocoa mixture. Add hot cream, alternately with remaining sugar mixture, beating well after each addition. Add only enough cream to make a nice spreading consistency. A delicious frosting, so luscious, chocolaty, so smooth and creamy! But always use Spry to be sure of best results. (All measurements in these recipes are level.)

Bake in two 8-inch Spry-coated layer pans in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 to 35 minutes. Spread Cocoa Cream Frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake.

VARIED USES

The prolific cocoanut palm furnishes island natives with wood for houses, boats and utensils; its leaves, when young, are eaten; when the leaves get old, they make hats, baskets, cloth, fans, bedding, paper, and thatch; the ribs are made into arrows, torches, and paddles; the flowers yield wine, vinegar, and sugar; the fruit is eaten, and its husk makes oil, cord, and matting.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES
This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. If the kidneys are tired, the acids and waste build up in the blood, and this causes backache, rheumatism, pain, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or liver.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give a happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

How One Woman Lost 20 Pounds of FAT

Her Double Chin
Her Prominent Hips
Her Sluggishness

LOST { In Attractiveness
GAINED { A Shapely Figure

When your bowels and kidneys fail to perform their work correctly your system cannot throw off the waste materials and digestion often becomes deranged—you lose energy and activity. Perhaps before you realize it you're losing your appeal and getting objectionably fat.

Take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of water every morning half an hour before breakfast, cut out pastry, fatty meats—and go light on white bread, potatoes, butter and cream. In three weeks get on the scales and see how many pounds of fat have vanished: notice also that you have gained in energy—your skin seems clearer and eyes brighter—you feel younger in body and keener in mind.

Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts (a famous English formula) plain or new effervescent sparkling—pleasant, at leading druggists everywhere, lasts 4 weeks and is inexpensive. Money back if not fully satisfied.

WARREN COUNTY IS AFFECTED BY NEW PROPOSAL

If the latest proposal for reapportioning Pennsylvania's congressional districts is adopted by the legislature, Warren county would be taken from the 20th congressional district and included with Erie and Crawford counties in the 29th district, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg today.

The new proposal was made by a House sub-committee, which offered it for inclusion in the general bill that is now heading for a conference committee.

The Democratic House and the Republican Senate have disagreed sharply on how to reduce the state's delegation in congress from 14 to 13 and as a result, two bills crossed paths.

The 20th Congressional district, in which Warren is now located, includes also the counties of Mercer, Venango, Forest, Clarion and Elk. Under the new plan, both Warren and Elk would be eliminated and Armstrong added to this district. It is proposed to place Elk in the 16th district, together with Indiana, Jefferson, McKean, Cameron, Potter and Tioga counties. The 16th is now made up of Clinton, Lycoming, Potter, Tioga, McKean and Cameron.

FARM VALUES
The farm real estate values in Pennsylvania, except for the slight recession in 1939, have gradually been recovering from the low level of 1932, and, though no improvement over 1940 is indicated for the current year, the index is now 99 percent of the 1912-14 base, according to Secretary John H. Light of the Department of Agriculture.

There was only one disappointment for me on my trip to Asheville and that was to find the chairman of the tournament committee, Sam Holt, confined to the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Oteen, N. C. just a few miles outside of Asheville.

Sam is an ardent bridge fan, and when I drove out to the hospital to see him, I met a lot of his pals at the hospital who had become interested in bridge through him. Sam, by the way, in addition to being chairman of the committee, was also captain of the team that tied with us at Asheville last year. The following was one of the interesting hands that turned up in that team play-off.

The opening lead was won by the ace of hearts. Now the actual play started developing the spades—then realized too late that the defenders were one jump ahead of him with the hearts. He got panic-stricken, tried a club finesse, forgot to unblock the diamond suit, and actually went down on the hand.

The hand was played at three no trump at the other tables, and the contract was made easily by simple play. South won the opening heart lead, cashed the king and queen of diamonds, then led a low club. The ace of clubs was put up, and dummy took the low heart and two spades.

Then dummy led the small club. Now it was clear that besides five diamonds and the ace of clubs, declarer was bound to win two hearts and an additional club trick. Or, if the defenders chose to try to prevent South from getting in to make the second heart and second club trick, they would have to give dummy the spades after taking their ace and king.

Three of the most ardent bridge fans I've met recently are Miss Iris Elton, Miss Esther Anderson, and Edwin Marquardt, all patients at the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Oteen, N. C. The two girls are former nurses. Marquardt has been in the hospital for 11 years.

Did we have a lot of fun discussing the value of the three-bid? My contention is that a three-bid insults your partner, as it intends to put him out of the bidding as well as the opponents. Properly, an original three-bid should show a suit of at least six cards in length headed by a K Q, or a seven-card suit headed by A K J and no side strength. This type of bid gives your partner a clear picture of your hand.

Marquardt told me he had read my articles in the Asheville Citizen-Times when he first came to the hospital, and he recalls that at one time I advocated a very different three-bid, but we all agreed the new type three-bid was the safest. For example, see how well it works out the following hand.

North knew, after his partner's opening three-bid, that South held at least six solid diamond tricks. North could therefore venture to bid three no trumps, over West's spade bid, on one bare spade stopper and only three high cards in the hand.

West took the opening lead with the ace of spades and led another spade. Declarer then cashed nine tricks. No opening could have stopped game, thanks to the lower stoppers in hearts and clubs.

If South does not make the opening three-bid, West's spade bidding will probably make it impossible for North-South to get to their game.

There was only one disappointment for me on my trip to Asheville and that was to find the chairman of the tournament committee, Sam Holt, confined to the U. S. Veterans' Hospital, at Oteen, N. C. The two girls are former nurses. Marquadt has been in the hospital for 11 years.

Did we have a lot of fun discussing the value of the three-bid? My contention is that a three-bid suits your partner, as it intends to put him out of the bidding as well as the opponents. Properly, an original three-bid should show a suit of at least six cards in length headed by A K Q, or a seven-card suit headed by A K J and no side strength. This type of bid gives your partner a clear picture of your hand.

Marquadt told me he had read my articles in the Asheville Citizen-Times when he first came to the hospital, and he recalls that at one time I advocated a very different three-bid, but we all agreed the new type three-bid was the safest. For example, see how well it works out on the following hand.

North knew, after his partner's opening three-bid, that South held at least six solid diamond tricks. North could therefore venture to bid three no trumps, over West's spade bid, on one bare spade stopper and only three high cards in the hand.

West took the opening lead with the ace of spades and led another spade. Declarer then cashed nine tricks. No opening could have stopped game, thanks to the lower stoppers in hearts and clubs.

If South does not make the opening three-bid, West's spade bidding will probably make it impossible for North-South to get to their game.

Three of the most ardent bridge fans I've met recently are Miss Iris Belton, Miss Esther Anderson, and Erwin Marquadt, all patients at the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Oteen, N. C. The two girls are former nurses. Marquadt has been in the hospital for 11 years.

Chicago Cubs Release Dizzy And Rehire Him As Coach

Dean's Request For Retirement Results In Novel Situation

Chicago, May 15.—(P)—Making baseball and its by-products pay off $258,936 in 11 years "ain't so dumb" even in the language of Jerome Dizzy Dean.

That's exactly what he did, the dizzo one who 15 years ago joined the army in order to be sure of eating regularly.

And they're still paying off Old Dizzy, one of the most colorful characters as well as one of the greatest pitchers in baseball history.

DIZZY DEAN

Dean, his once famous right arm no longer possessing pitching magic, tried to retire yesterday, but the Chicago Cubs wouldn't let him. Instead, General Manager James T. Gallagher gave him his outright release then rehired him as a coach. Dean who pitched only one inning this year, not only will get his full $10,000 pitching salary, but also an additional salary for his new duties.

Gone are the days when he "fogged down" his high hard one to win 102 games in a four-year stretch with the St. Louis Cardinals. Nevertheless, it was a surprisingly happy Dean who began his new duties today. His job will be to instruct young pitchers, hit fungoes, pitch in batting practice, work in the bull pen and serve as a cubs contact man with the public, making speeches and banquet appearances. He will not coach on the baselines.

Since he signed his first contract with the Houston club of the Texas league in 1920 at a salary of $300 a month, Dean has earned $258,936—a sizable wad for a one-time Texas cotton picker.

Altogether his baseball earnings since 1930 have amounted to $182,026, including shares in seven World Series. From other sources—radio contracts, food endorsements, barnstorming tours, etc.—Dean earned $99,900.

Dean often has said "they never will have to play a benefit game for me" because he saved most of his money. He credits his wife, Patricia, with being the thrifty one.

Dean said he asked to be placed on the voluntary retired list because "I was eating my heart out" doing nothing on the bench.

"I like to pitch so much it broke my heart because I couldn't. My arm feels like a piece of rubber that has been stretched so much it won't stretch any more."

Dean came to the Cubs in April, 1939, for a reported purchase price of $150,000 and three players. He won only 16 games but was a tremendous attraction and Owner Phil Wrigley felt amply repaid in gate receipts.

TENTH VICTORY OF SEASON FOR WARREN HI NINE

AVE ATQUE VALE!
At long last came the opportunity to employ the only cultural phrase which rubbed off on us during our long and thoroughly unpleasant association with the study of the Romanic languages. As we recall now, it is literally translated, "Hail and Farewell!" but there is the outside chance that it means "No Smoking," or "Post No Bills," in which case we'll be more than a little mortified. In that case, grade us "E" for effort, at least. Of course, you'll be annoyed by this pillar for a couple of days yet, but there is such a lot to say in singing our editorial swan song that we dared not attempt it in a single offering.

To begin with, we are grateful to the publisher of the Times-Mirror for the opportunity to affiliate ourselves in a small way with the sports scene here, where we have made new friendships which we value most highly and, no doubt, a few enemies who haven't been too bitter about it all. We have enjoyed practically every step of the past two years and have received far more in experience and contacts than we have been able to return to the job. Every journalist has heard the hackneyed phrase, "You meet such interesting people," which is partially a fact, but in no department, in our opinion, do you meet so many as on the sports desk.

In the field of competitive athletics we find most of the men whom we put in our personal "Swirl Guy," department and comparatively few of the other variety. Sports bring out the best and the worst, we suppose. The fellow richly endowed with the former is the gent who lasts in our memory, fortunately, and the unpleasant experience of occasionally running into one who has more than his share of the latter generally is more amusing than distasteful. Fellow scribes are to be numbered among the friends whom we hope to hold—lads like Ray Peebles, Johnny Nelson, Stue Maguire, George Dodds, Waite Forsyth, Fred Sica, Frank Thayer, Art Monahan, Jim Rich, Joe Scharf, Bob Stedler and dozens of others. Not a foul ball among 'em!

And the players, themselves who are too numerous to mention. Professional, sandlot, amateur and scholastic—98 out of a hundred are fellows you'd go out of your way to meet. Then, there are the coaches who are willing to halt their tutoring for a moment to give out the material for a paragraph or two, not for publicity's sake alone; because they know the scribe has a job to do. Those who will always be remembered by us with special regard are Dent Moon, Buckey Buchwald, Joe Passaro, Joe Massa, Clyde Moore, Rolly Myers, Bob Pfug, Mike Ferrare, Vic Gentilman, Russ Yost, Lowell Drake, Sherm Stanford, Tom Drummond and the late Darby Mannix. Gentlemen all, on and off the field, and probably the best company day in and day out that could be found. Of course, the local matters occupy first place, but more of them anon.

Yep perhaps there's something to this "such interesting people," although most initiates look upon it as a gag. Maybe it's a good thing we stopped to take inventory. Tomorrow we'd like to take up a little space to tell you about Warren's high school sports picture and perhaps develop a couple of little matters we've glossed over before, for obvious reasons.

HARDER THUMPS YANKEES TO WIN FOURTH IN ROW

BY JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
Mel Harder, who at the mellow age of 31 is a veteran of a dozen years service with the Cleveland Indians in the American League, is the miracle pitcher of the season thus far.

The slender Nebraskan, always considered a "hot weather" performer already has won four games without a defeat and the only question now is whether he can maintain anything resembling this winning pace through the remainder of the campaign.

For many years Harder was one of the best hurlers in his league. But even in his best seasons he never could get going in the spring.

In 1935 when he won 22 games he didn't collect his first victory until the 30th of May. In 1938, his best recent season, he scored 17 triumphs and didn't get the first one until June. Last year, when he won 12 games, he didn't even make his first start until May 22.

Consequently his six-hit, 4-1 victory over the New York Yankees yesterday caused his Cleveland teammates, as well as the rest of the American League, to wonder what level he might reach this summer.

He had the help of three home runs—Gene DeSauteles, Clarence (Soup) Campbell and Gee Walker. Each got his first homer of the season to sink Red Ruffing, although he too pitched six-hit ball.

The Boston Red Sox regained second place in the circuit by toppling the Chicago White Sox 10-7 with a seven-run rally in the seventh inning. Climaxed by a grand-slam homer by Manager Joe Cronin, Boston was trailing 6-3 prior to the big blowoff.

The Washington Senators set down the Detroit Tigers 9-4 for the American League champions' sixth straight loss since Hank Greenberg departed for the army. Steve Sundra was backed by a 16-hit offensive.

The St. Louis Browns stopped the Philadelphia Athletics 10-1 behind the steady nine-hit hurling of Bob Harris.

FISTIC SOLONS EXONERATED BY STATE SENATE

Harrisburg, May 15.—(P)—The members of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission have been exonerated by the State Senate of a charge of "open connivance with gamblers."

The Senate yesterday picked the resolution in which the charge was made immediately confirmed the three members of the commission by a vote of 48 to 0.

The three commissioners—Leon L. Rains, Philadelphia; Harvey E. Pittsburgh, and George L. Jones, Williamsport, were confirmed after Senator John M. Walker (R-Allegheny) said:

"There was no testimony to substantiate the charges that open connivance with gamblers now exists."

Walker, chairman of the judicial committee, said his group had "indefinitely postponed" action on the resolution introduced by Senator Jerome J. Jansan and Anthony Disilvestro, Philadelphia Democrats.

Jansan said that although "nothing has occurred to alter our opinions," there was not sufficient time left to make the inquiry.

Introduced shortly before the Joe Louis-Gus Dorazio fight in Philadelphia, the resolution charged that violation of the duty of the State Athletic Commission by its chairman, Leon L. Rains, to the public of Pennsylvania because of the unequal ability of the participants and the probable severe physical injury of Gus Dorazio.

Jansan said yesterday the results of "that fiasco" speak "for themselves." Louis knocked out Dorazio easily.

When the resolution was first introduced, Rains said the investigation had been asked because of his refusal to give Jansan some free fight tickets.

Dean's Request For Retirement Results In Novel Situation

Chicago, May 15.—(P)—Making baseball and its by-products pay off $258,936 in 11 years "ain't so dumb" even in the language of Jerome Dizzy Dean.

That's exactly what he did, the ditty one who 15 years ago joined the army in order to be sure of eating regularly.

And they're still paying off Old Diz, one of the most colorful characters as well as one of the greatest pitchers in baseball history.

DIZZY DEAN

Dean, his once famous right arm no longer possessing pitching magic, tried to retire yesterday, but the Chicago Cubs wouldn't let him. Instead, General Manager James T. Gallagher gave him his outright release, then rehired him as a coach. Dean, who pitched only one inning this year, not only will get his full $10,000 pitching salary, but also an additional salary for his new duties.

Gone are the days when he "fogged down" his high hard one to win 102 games in a four-year stretch with the St. Louis Cardinals. Nevertheless, it was a supremely happy Dean who began his new duties today. His job will be to instruct young pitchers, hit fungoes, pitch in batting practice, work in the bull pen and serve as a club contact man with the public, making speeches and banquet appearances. He will not coach on the baselines.

Since he signed his first contract with the Houston club of the Texas league in 1930 at a salary of $300 a month, Dean has earned $258,936—a sizable wad for a one-time Texas cotton picker.

Altogether his baseball earnings since 1930 have amounted to $162,056, including shares in seven World Series. From other sources—radio contracts, food endorsements, barnstorming tours, etc.—Dean earned $96,900.

Dean often has said "they never will have to play a benefit game for me," because he saved most of his money. He credits his wife, Patricia, with being the thrifty one.

Dean said he asked to be placed on the voluntary retired list because "I was eating my heart out" doing nothing on the bench.

"I like to pitch so much it broke my heart because I couldn't. My arm feels like a piece of rubber that has been stretched so much it won't stretch any more."

Dean came to the Cubs in April, 1938, for a reported purchase price of $155,000 and three players. He won only 16 games but was a tremendous attraction and owner Phil Wrigley felt amply repaid in gate receipts.

TENTH VICTORY OF SEASON FOR WARREN HI NINE

Coach Leidig's Dragon terrors staged a replica of the Alamo massacre at Russell Field last night in whipping Sugar Grove 17 to 1 to ring up their tenth consecutive win.

Sedon, Bennett and Kifer collaborated in the two-hit pitching job, with Sedon getting credit for the victory. Two safe hits rang off his offerings in the first three frames, and the other hurlers held Sugar Grove without a bingle for the balance of the encounter.

Jungle Jim Harding, veteran first sacker, pulled a home run for his lone hit, while Olsen, MacDonald, Hagberg and Sharp collected a pair of hits apiece. One of Hagberg's was a triple and MacDonald and Sharp each had doubles.

SPORT SCATTERINGS

AVE ATQUE VALE!

At long last comes the opportunity to employ the only cultural phrase which rubbed off on us during our long and thoroughly unpleasant association with the study of the Romanic languages. As we recall now, it is literally translated, "Hail and Farewell!" but there is the outside chance that it means "No Smoking" or "Post No Bills" in which case we'll be more than a little mortified. In that case, grade us "E" for effort, at least. Of course, you'll be annoyed by this pillar for a couple of days yet, but there is such a lot to say in singing our editorial swan song that we dared not attempt it in a single offering.

To begin with, we are grateful to the publisher of the Times-Mirror for the opportunity to affiliate ourselves in a small way with the sports scene here, where we have made new friendships which we value most highly and, no doubt, a few enemies who haven't been too bitter about it all. We have enjoyed practically every step of the past two years and have received far more in experience and contacts than we have been able to return to the job. Every journalist has heard the hackneyed phrase, "You meet such interesting people," which is partially a fact, but in no department, in our opinion, do you meet so many as on the sports desk.

In the field of competitive athletics we find most of the men whom we put in our personal "Swell Guy," department and comparatively few of the other variety. Sports bring out the best and the worst, we suppose. The fellow richly endowed with the former is the gent who lasts in our memory, fortunately, and the unpleasant experience of occasionally running into one who has more than his share of the latter generally is more amusing than distasteful. Fellow scribblers are to be numbered among the friends whom we hope to hold-ids like Ray Peebles, Johnny Nelson, Sue Maguire, George Dodds, Waite Forsyth, Fred Sica, Frank Thayer, Art Monahan, Jim Rich, Joe Szafan, Bob Stedler and dozens of others. Not a foul ball among 'em!

And the players, themselves, who are too numerous to mention. Professional, sandlot, amateur and scholastic—98 out of a hundred are fellows you'd go out of your way to meet. Then, there are the coaches who are willing to halt their tutoring for a moment to give out the material for a paragraph or two, not for publicity's sake alone, because the fellow who has a job to do, to do, those who will always be remembered by us with special regard are Dent Moon, Bucky Buchwald, Joe Passaro, Joe Massa, Clyde Moore, Rolly Myers, Bob Plug, Mike Ferrare, Vic Gentilman, Russ Yost, Lovell Drake, Sherm Stanford, Tom Drummond and the late Darby Mannix. Gentlemen all, on and off the field, and probably the best company day in and day out that could be found. Of course, the local mentors occupy first place, but more of them anon.

Yep, perhaps there's something to this "such interesting people," although most initiates look upon it as a gag. Maybe it's a good thing we stopped to take inventory. Tomorrow we'd like to take up a little space to tell you about Warren's high school sports picture and perhaps develop a couple of little matters we've glossed over before, for obvious reasons.

HARDER THUMPS YANKEES TO WIN FOURTH IN ROW

BY JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
Mel Harder, who is the mellow age of 31 is a veteran of a dozen years service with the Cleveland Indians in the American League, is the miracle pitcher of the season thus far.

The slender Nebraskan, always considered a "hot weather" performer already has won four games without a defeat and the only question now is whether he can maintain anything resembling this winning pace through the remainder of the campaign.

For many years Harder was one of the best hurlers in his league. But even in his best seasons he never could get going in the spring.

In 1935 when he won 22 games he didn't collect his first victory until the 30th of May. In 1938, his best recent season, he scored 17 triumphs and didn't get the first one until June, last year, when he won 12 games, he didn't even make his first start until May 22.

Consequently his six-hit, 4-1 victory over the New York Yankees yesterday caused his Cleveland cohorts, as well as the rest of the American League, to wonder what level he might reach this summer.

He had the help of three home runs—Gene Desautels, Clarence (Soup) Campbell and Gee Walker. Each got his first homer of the season to sink Red Ruffing, although he too pitched six-hit ball.

The Boston Red Sox regained second place in the circuit by topping the Chicago White Sox 10-7 with a seven-run rally in the seventh inning. Climaxed by a grand-slam homer by Manager Joe Cronin, Boston was trailing 6-3 prior to the big blowoff.

The Washington Senators set down the Detroit Tigers 9-4 for the American League champions' sixth straight loss since Hank Greenberg departed for the army. Steve Sundra was backed by a 16-hit offensive.

The St. Louis Browns stopped the Philadelphia Athletics 10-5 behind the steady nine-hit hurling of Bob Harris.

FISTIC SOLONS EXONERATED BY STATE SENATE

Harrisburg, May 15.—(P)—The members of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission have been exonerated by the State Senate of a charge of "open connivance with gamblers."

The Senate yesterday picked the resolution in which the charge was made immediately confirmed the three members of the commission by a vote of 48 to 0.

The three commissioners—Leon L. Rains, Philadelphia; Haverly Boyle, Pittsburgh, and George L. Jones, Williamsport, were confirmed after Senator John M. Walker (R-Allegheny) said:

"There was no testimony to substantiate the charges that open connivance with gamblers now exists."

Walker, chairman of the judiciary committee, said his group had "indefinitely postponed" action on the resolution introduced by Senator Jerome J. Jansan and Anthony Disilvestro, Philadelphia Democrats.

Jansan said that although "nothing has occurred to alter our opinions" there was not sufficient time left to make the inquiry.

Introduced shortly before the Joe Louis-Gus Dorazio fight in Philadelphia, the resolution charged that violation of the duty of the State Athletic Commission by its chairman, Leon L. Rains, to the public of Pennsylvania because of the unequal ability of the participants and the probable severe physical injury of Gus Dorazio.

Jansan said yesterday the results of "that fiasco" speak "for themselves." Louis knocked out Dorazio easily.

When the resolution was first introduced, Rains said the investigation had been asked because of his refusal to give Jansan some free fight tickets.

Walkout Reported At Flint

William S. Knudsen, chief of the office of Production Management, termed the GM situation "damning serious."

The Mediation Board announced that the management of General Motors had until 4:10 a. m. (EST) Friday to accept or reject the findings and recommendations which the board made for settlement. The findings and recommendations will not be made public, the board announced, until they have been accepted or rejected by the corporation.

Representatives of the CIO United Automobile Workers, it was added, have accepted the terms "without reservation" but subject to ratification by the Union membership.

The announcement came at dawn, with the negotiators haggard after 18 hours of almost unbroken conferences.

Nub of the controversy appeared to be the union's demand for a general wage boost of 10 cents an hour. The corporation has said the present wage average is slightly more than $1 an hour, and made the union a counter-offer of 2 cents increase generally, with greater increases for certain skilled ratings.

General Motors has about $750,000,000 in defense contracts, but union leaders declared that only $160,000,000 of the orders were in plants which would be affected by a strike. Even in those plants, the union said, defense work would not be interfered with. But company officials asserted that defense and non-defense work could not be segregated.

With settlement of the Colt strike at Hartford, 5,600 munitions workers were ordered back to their jobs after a two-day tie-up in the nation's largest machine gun factory.

A strike which had held up construction of a $30,000,000 naval drydock in Boston was settled, but shipyard strikes in the San Francisco bay area continued to tie up $500,000,000 worth of naval construction. Details of the Boston settlement were not announced immediately, but the strikers had protested use of WPA workers on the project.

The west coast shipyard disputes were discussed yesterday by Sidney Hillman, associate director of the office of Production Management, in a conference with President Roosevelt. Hillman told reporters he had asked the help of the international president of the AFL machinists in ending the shipyard strikes.

Rumblings of new labor trouble continued in the soft coal industry, while bituminous operators made ready to confer today with representatives of the CIO United Mine Workers, John L. Lewis, union president, has declared that if a wage agreement with southern operators could not be reached this week, the union would be forced to consider a work stoppage throughout the eight-state Appalachian district.

Action Is In Public Interest

The new twist further complicated the war's strangest story. These facts emerged:

1. A British radio spokesman first hinted broadly that Hess was divulging vital German military secrets by declaring he was talking and writing "words which will make the German High Command sweat."

2. The Berlin radio subsequently insisted that Hess, suffering from a "Messiah complex," new to the Hamilton, an old friend, in the hope of bringing about an end of the war.

3. Informed British quarters then accepted this version—only to have it cast in doubt by high officials.

Churchill had been expected to make a statement on the case today, but it was later reported that he had decided to postpone it—apparently wanting more information from the deputy fuhrer before laying the whole affair before parliament.

On the action front, a British Middle East headquarters communiqué said Axis warplanes "continuously" attacked the islands of Crete and the British naval base there at Suda bay, May 12 and 13.

Dispatches from Cairo said British naval planes, striking at Axis supply lines, bombed an Africa-bound convoy in the Mediterranean and sank an 8,000-ton merchant ship. An Axis destroyer guarding the convoy, was also reported hit, "with clouds of smoke pouring from it."

Germany Sends Iraq Assistance

The British since May 2, is one of the world's richest oil producers and a route to Britain's vital Suez Canal.

Apparently, Adolf Hitler (perhaps through agreement with the Vichy government) had gone to the aid of their Iraqis against the British, fulfilling the German statement at the end of the Balkan campaign that only the first phase of the war in the Middle East was over.

Evidence that the Germans were ready or already had launched a new military venture on the hot sands of Asia Minor came today from several sources—including a Cairo announcement of the Middle East command.

Supply Vessel In Nazi Convoy Claimed Sunk

(From Page One)
It was feared its famous bells may never ring again.
The ship, which was damaged for the third time by a high explosive bomb which shattered the Negvate street end of the famous criminal court.

Though the gilded figure of justice still stands with outstretched arms on the dome, one of its four courts is ruined and the remainder are littered with debris.

Famous Queen's Hall, mecca for music lovers, was damaged severely and valuable musical instruments of the London philharmonic orchestra were destroyed.

Seizure Measure Advances

A group of senators who favor his proposal, but who believe it would command greater support if presented separately and not as an amendment to an extraneous measure.

The group also felt it might be wiser to wait until President Roosevelt had delivered his fireside chat on May 27.

"There is no element or retreat in this," Tobey insisted afterward. "The issue is still very much alive and will be brought to the senate, maybe next week."

Wheeler said public sentiment is "very definitely turning against our involvement in the war and our use of convoys."

HITLER ENVOY BEARS GREETINGS TO TURKEY

Istanbul, May 15.—(P)—German Ambassador Franz von Papen delivered "friendly greetings" from Adolf Hitler to Turkish President Ismet Inonu during a lengthy conversation today, a communique announced.

It said also that Sukru Saracoglu, Turkish foreign minister, was present, but gave no details beyond describing the veteran Nazi diplomat as "the bearer of greetings from the head of the German state to the president of Turkey."

EARLY RALLY IS RETARDED LATER

New York, May 15.—(P)—Stocks attempted a come-back in today's market, but were retarded by an afternoon slip-up in steels and aircrafts.

The list did fairly well at the start. Activity was exceptionally slack and fractional advances were reduced or converted into declines after mid-day. Quotations were well mixed near the final hour, with transfers at the rate of about 350,000 shares.

It Happened In

WARREN--45 YEARS AGO

(NOTE: This is the eighth of a series. Names in the news and little happenings taken from the Warren Evening Mirror bring to us in 1941 the atmosphere of 1896.)

Gold has been found at Red House! It has been assayed and is worth about $200 a ton. W. W. Remington, Lester Bull and Henry Earl made the discovery. The land is owned by Bradford capitalists.

—what was this, a false alarm?

Dr. Baker rolled the biggest game yet recorded at the Palace bowling alley Tuesday, making 256 points, 8 strikes and 2 spares.

—Warren's high for 1941: 290 points by Dr. Robertson

A. J. Hultburg, who lives between Chandlers Valley and Youngsville, exhibited some strawberries yesterday which he raised, measuring six inches around and three inches long. Today he brought some to town that measured eight to nine inches in circumference.

—wonder what he'll bring tomorrow

Sugar Run Grange met Saturday with only a few members present, as farm work is very pressing. Some were not prepared for debate on the selected question: "The Financial Matters of Our Country."

—too much for busy farmers

Restoring a dead mouse to life caused some consternation among the girls at the Sugar Grove Seminary commencement, when Dr. Pillsbury (Geo. McCulloch) concluded his talk on the X-ray.

—such pretty squeals! mouse or girls?

Etched with the name of each member of the faculty in his or her own handwriting, a handsome bevel-edged mirror was given to Charles Dinsmoor, president of the Board of Education (1879-1896) by the faculty of the public schools in recognition of his long and faithful service.

—wonder if this mirror is still in existence

Who doesn't feel better, happier, and more like an American citizen since McKinley's nomination?

Mary had a little wheel
And she went out to ride it.
The bike, it gave a bumpy twist
And Mary sat beside it.

A Sugar Social at the M. E. church proved very profitable from a musical and literary point of view.

Hospitable Welcome Assured All

At Times-Mirror Cooking School

Do your friends shoo you out of the audience to let the pastry "relax"?

The Times-Mirror has been checking up on these nervous relatives and friends who order innocent bystanders out of the mixing and baking zone in tones that suggest a scene if kitchen traffic isn't cleared promptly.

Even small girls, who are ever so eager to watch mother measure and blend and whip that good-to-eat icing, often are told to "run along now and stay out of the kitchen until mother is through." And in later years, when those girls are grown up and struggling with their own culinary problems, they still long to go sight-seeing in a busy kitchen.

The Times-Mirror has located a competent specialist who will not be flustered by sightseers and questions. This nationally-known home economics authority, Mrs. Katherine Baldridge, never has been known to shoo guests from her hospitable kitchen, even when the "S. Z. O." sign went up.

Mrs. Baldridge realizes that an experienced housewife is even more reluctant than a timid bride to inquire into the sad mysteries of cracked cakes, bitter coffee, watery custards, spotty laundry, balky kitchen equipment and obstinate pastry—pastry that is always too long, or too short.

As this understanding home consultant says: "Strangely enough it is the minor steps in cookery that pile up the most trouble. We are all apt to develop bad habits in measuring and mixing that are not only awkward, but actually dooming the time and effort. The surest way to correct such faults and simplify every-day routine is to watch someone who has specialized in studying this problem of trimming time and waste motion."

WARREN--45 YEARS AGO

(NOTE: This is the eighth of a series. Names in the news and little happenings taken from the Warren Evening Mirror bring to us in 1941 the atmosphere of 1896.)

Gold has been found at Red House! It has been assayed and is worth about $200 a ton. W. W. Remington, Lester Bull and Henry Earl made the discovery. The land is owned by Bradford capitalists.

—what was this, a false alarm?

Dr. Baker rolled the biggest game yet recorded at the Palace bowling alley Tuesday, making 256 points; 8 strikes and 2 spares.

—Warren's high for 1941: 290 points by Dr. Robertson

A. J. Hultburg, who lives between Chandlers Valley and Youngs-ville, exhibited some strawberries yesterday which he raised, measuring six inches around and three inches long. Today he brought some to town that measured eight to nine inches in circumference.

—wonder what he'll bring tomorrow

Sugar Run Grange met Saturday with only a few members present, as farm work is very pressing. Some were not prepared for debate on the selected question: "The Financial Matters of Our Country."

—too much for busy farmers

Restoring a dead mouse to life caused some consternation among the girls at the Sugar Grove Seminary commencement, when Dr. Pills-bottle (Geo. McCulloch) concluded his talk on the X-ray.

—such pretty squeals! mouse or girls?

Etched with the name of each member of the faculty in his or her own handwriting, a handsome beveled mirror was given to Charles Dinsmoor, president of the Board of Education (1879-1896) by the fac-ulty of the public schools in recognition of his long and faithful service.

—wonder if this mirror is still in existence

Who doesn't feel better, happier, and more like an American citizen since McKinley's nomination!

Mary had a little wheel
And she went out to ride it.
The bike, it gave a balky twist
And Mary sat beside it.

A Sugar Social at the M. E. church proved very profitable from a musical and literary point of view.

Recitation—Margaret Lemmon
Duet (piano and mandolin)—Irene Taylor, Prof. Molson
Current Events—Judge Noyes

At the close warm sugar, biscuits, and ice cream were served, and a large number were fortunate to enjoy these delicacies.

At Times-Mirror Cooking School

Do your friends shoo you out of their kitchens?

The Times-Mirror has been checking up on these nervous relatives and friends who order inno-cent bystanders out of the mixing and baking zone in tones that sug-gest a scene if kitchen traffic isn't cleared promptly.

Even small girls, who are ever so eager to watch mother measure and blend and whip that good-to-lick icing, often are told to "run along now and stay out of the kit-chen until mother is through." And in later years, when those girls are grown up and struggling with their own culinary problems, they still long to go sight-seeing in a busy kitchen.

The Times-Mirror has located a competent specialist who will not be flustered by sightseers and questions. This nationally-known home economics authority, Mrs. Katherine Baldrige, never has been known to shoo guests from her hospitable kitchen, even when the "S. R. O." sign went up.

Mrs. Baldrige realizes that an experienced housewife is even more reluctant than a timid bride to inquire into the sad mysteries of cracked cakes, bitter coffee, watery custards, spotty laundry, balky kitchen equipment and ob-stinate pastry—pastry that is al-ways too long, or too short.
